Illinois State Board of Investment Announces Resignation of William R. Atwood as Executive Director

Atwood led ISBI for 15 years

CHICAGO, IL – The Illinois State Board of Investment (ISBI) announced today that, after 15 years as Executive Director, William R. Atwood has informed the Board of his intention to resign, effective June 30 of this year.

“It has been a great privilege to lead the Illinois State Board of Investment for 15 years. I am proud of the performance we achieved on behalf of our plan participants during my tenure,” Atwood said.

Chairman Marc Levine added, “On behalf of the Board, I thank Bill Atwood for his years of service. Bill managed ISBI through challenging investment markets and through the challenges confronting the State of Illinois.”
